WESTON LAWN'S YOUNG HORSE FESTIVAL, WESTON LAWN, WILTSHIRE, 27-28 JULY

By Suzanne Jones

It was a day of firsts for Weston Lawn's Young Horse Festival, with the first ever six-year-old final in the Kingsland class. The weather was perfect, with a light breeze and a clear blue sky. The competition was fierce, with many top-quality horses and riders. The winner was Jessica Botham on Emma Phillips' and Quinton Stud's Quiet Easy 4. The horse was a real star, jumping the fences with ease and style. The crowd was huge, and the atmosphere was electric. It was a fantastic day for everyone involved, and it was a pleasure to be part of it.

Easy does it
THUNDER, lightning and horizontal rain forced a break as fences blew over during the Kingsland six-year-old final, but a winner was eventually found in the six-horse decider — Jessica Botham on Emma Phillips' and Quinton Stud's Quiet Easy 4. "I haven't pushed him against the clock and he was unsure when I tried to angle the second vertical," said Jess. "I ended up on a really bad line, but he just jumped higher."
